

CONSIDERING YOUR CAREER PATH?

JOIN THE LAWN AND LANDSCAPE INDUSTRY!

0 YEARS OF COLLEGE EDUCATION REQUIRED

A college degree isn't necessary to succeed (and even really prosper!) in the industry as most companies provide on-the-job training that supports tremendous career advancement opportunities. Some even offer apprenticeship programs with formalized, structured training for employees that want to call the profession their home.

2-4 YEARS OF COLLEGE WILL BE PUT TO GOOD USE

Some choose to pursue an advanced education to define and support their passion for learning. The landscape industry certainly puts those college degrees to use, allowing many professionals to start in management positions.

MANY INDUSTRY PROFESSIONALS BEGIN THEIR CAREER WITH TRAINING IN:

HORTICULTURE

BUSINESS MANAGEMENT

AGRONOMY

ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE

PLANNING AND DESIGN

MARKETING

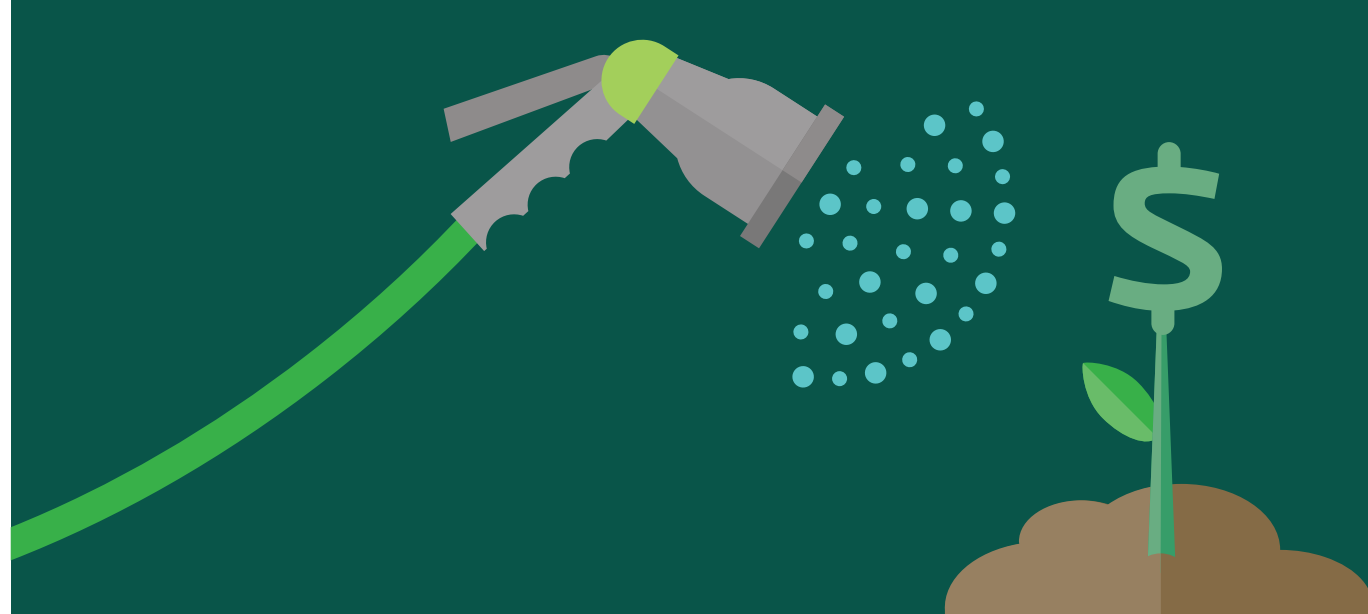

LANDSCAPE MANAGEMENT

ACCOUNTING

WHETHER YOU'RE STARTING YOUR CAREER AFTER HIGH SCHOOL OR PLANNING ON EARNING A COLLEGE DEGREE, IF YOU'RE DRIVEN, OPPORTUNITIES FOR SUCCESS ARE ENDLESS!

$105 BILLION
INDUSTRY...AND GROWING!

The lawn and landscape industry is booming and offers growth and advancement opportunities to employees from entry level to management.

300,000
AVAILABLE JOBS IN THE INDUSTRY

The lawn and landscape industry hires 300,000 people each year for a diverse range of roles and responsibilities.

BROUGHT TO YOU BY THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF LANDSCAPE PROFESSIONALS

WANT MORE INFO?

There's more to explore! Each person who enters the profession is on the path to developing strong skills, earning a competitive salary, enhancing the environment and transforming the places where we live and work. What's more, it's an industry that is all about team work. Check out resources and find job openings at

LANDSCAPEINDUSTRYCAREERS.ORG

@WHYILANDSCAPE