

Corteva Agriscience Collaborates With FMC Professional Solutions to Enhance Early Order Program

Top FMC Fungicides Now Qualify for Corteva Agriscience Ultimate Rewards

Wilmington, Del., Aug. 19, 2021 — Corteva Agriscience and FMC Professional Solutions are excited to announce an early-order program collaboration beginning Oct. 1. The joint effort keeps the business needs of turf and ornamental professionals in the lawn and landscape, golf, and nursery markets at the forefront by expanding savings opportunities on the fungicides they rely on.

As part of the 2021 Corteva Agriscience Ultimate Rewards early-order program, turf and ornamental professionals will now have the ability to purchase select FMC fungicides that will count toward the program's rebates and locked-in savings. Qualifying FMC products include all package sizes of Fame® SC Fungicide and Rayora® Fungicide. These brands also will be available through the FMC True Champions early-order program.

"Our collaborative effort to deliver strong brands in an easy-to-manage process will not only enable lawn, golf and nursery professionals to exceed their agronomic needs but will also help positively impact their bottom line," said Mark Neterer, Corteva Agriscience Turf & Ornamental Business Leader. "Corteva Agriscience is thrilled to work closely with the FMC team to better meet the needs of our customers."

"We welcome the opportunity to better serve individual needs through this initiative," said Dan Carrothers, FMC Professional Solutions Commercial Director. "With the combination of Corteva Agriscience and FMC sales and technical support teams, professionals will have unmatched industry support for FMC's fungicides in the lawn, golf and nursery markets."

Qualifying FMC fungicides can be purchased during two flexible ordering periods: Oct. 1 to Dec. 10, 2021, to lock in rebates for the full market year and Jan. 1 to Feb. 28, 2022, to lock in rebates through September 2022. The FMC products will only be available for sale through a qualified FMC distributor.
